Open Call: BE IN FORUM Participation Opportunity

Apply now for the BeIN FORUM of the Be In project!

Event Date: November 27th and 28th , 2023

We are looking for 20 participants, aged 21 to 30-year-old, from Greece, to participate to the Be In Forum. BeIN Forum is organized by Goce Delcev University, Stip, in North Macedonia and is a component of the Interreg-IPA CBC BeIN project.

Details:

- Location: Strumica, Republic of North Macedonia
- Duration: Two days (November 27th and 28th)
- Objective: Empowering young participants to make informed career choices and enhancing their capacities.
- The cost of transportation and accommodation (2 participants per room) will be covered by the Programme.

Eligibility:

- Participants must be aged between 21-30.
- Must hail from the following regions in Greece: Thessaloniki, Florina, Kilkis, Pella, Serres.

Program:

- 1st Day (27th November):

- Presentations by industry experts and young entrepreneurs (starting from 12 pm).
- 2nd Day (28th November):
 - Workshop on "Creative Problem Solving and Creation of Business Ideas for Personal and Societal Transformation" (11 am – 3 pm).

Potential participants will benefit from their participation by engaging in the forum's knowledge-sharing platform, fostering valuable connections, and honing essential skills such as communication and critical thinking. Furthermore, their involvement in the workshop, titled "Creative Problem Solving and Creation of Business Ideas for Personal and Societal Transformation," will provide a targeted opportunity to enhance problem-solving skills, generate innovative business ideas, undergo personal transformation, and explore potential collaborations. This dual engagement in forum activities and the specialized workshop ensures a comprehensive learning experience, promoting both personal and professional development through active participation, skill acquisition, and creative exploration.
